

SIERRA PLANTERS

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

The SIERRA Planters reinterpret the language of form and function as a sculptural totem of materials that bridges architecture and nature. Each piece is composed of stacked, contrasting elements: the warmth of wood, the rawness of travertine, the reflection of polished metal, and the vibrancy of resin.

Designed to stand as independent sculptural statements or functional planters, Sierra embodies the essence of the iVERTI Effect, a design philosophy rooted in transformation. Its vertical rhythm and layered geometry invite reinterpretation: as art, as vessel, as connection between craft and landscape.

Handcrafted in the UAE, every composition celebrates contrast, graphic yet organic, minimal yet expressive. Transforming any interior or exterior into a curated dialogue of form and texture.

MATERIALS & FINISHES

The planter is composed of stacked modules in travertine, marble, or limestone, all finished in a honed matte surface for a refined, natural look. A central resin band adds a subtle contrast with a glossy Blush Rose finish, customizable in other tones.

The wood segment is crafted from walnut or oak with a satin open-pore finish, while a striped section of natural marble with polished metal inlay introduces an alternating rhythm of honed and reflective surfaces, creating a dynamic interplay of texture and material.

THE INVERTI EFFECT

The Sierra Planters are conceived as both sculpture and function, adaptable through finish, composition, and context.

- In Bold Form, vivid high gloss and strong material contrast transform Sierra into a sculptural centerpiece, ideal for gallery spaces or entry halls.
- In Soft Form, tonal stones and natural woods allow it to serve as an elegant planter, seamlessly integrating into living environments.

This dual identity defines The INVERTI Effect. One piece, two expressions blurring the line between art and object.
